

LEE SMEDLEY
BUSINESS BALLADEER

Song Lyrics

“LEAD FROM WHERE YOU STAND”

By Lee Smedley

I'm lookin' good, man, I'm workin' hard.
I've even got myself a corporate VISA card.
I've been to school, oh yeah, I know the latest.
My Mom and all my friends think that I'm the greatest.

But back at work, they won't listen. No they won't listen to me.
And they won't let me lead.
No, they won't listen to me....and they won't let me lead.

Boss says I'm doin' great, yeah, I'm doin' fine.
But I think she should leave, 'cause I'm the next in line.
Why won't she take a hike, it's time she was movin' on.
Make a spot for me to lead....I've been waiting for so long.....

Then they would listen. Yes they would listen to me.
And they would let me lead.
Yes, they would listen to me...and they would let me lead.
Yes, they would let me lead.

BRIDGE

Folks from near Sandusky, they just bought us site unseen.
They say operations will be managed by machine.
Should I jump ship? After all, I am the next in line.
Maybe I should think this through while I still have some time.

Maybe I should listen, really listen, really listen to what they need.
And maybe I could lead.
If I just listen to what they need. Oh yes, I would lead.
Oh yes I will lead.....from where I stand.